Ordained Minister &
Licensed Wedding Celebrant

Modification of Agreement

- Postponements or Cancellation of the Ceremony will require a verbal/video confirmation whereby the client’s identity is confirmed.
- The wedding date may be rebooked, under compassionate grounds at no additional cost, at the discretion of the Celebrant.
- Cancellations are; non-refundable, non-transferrable, disregarding any balance owed.
- In the highly unlikely event whereby I cannot officiate, I will do everything within my power to arrange for a suitable replacement – in consultation with you.

Indemnification:

The client shall indemnify and hold harmless the Celebrant from any and all liability arising out of or pursuant to this Agreement including any errors or omissions. The Celebrant will not charge the client for any additional expenditures required to remedy any error or omission.

Notice:

- ∞ The Celebrant agrees to not disclose or divulge any confidential information which the Officiant has obtained, except as authorized by the client or as required by law.
- ∞ As per the Office of the Registrar General, I am obliged to oversee a wedding only when all signing participants present are of adequate sound mind with full cognitive capacity to execute on or witness this pledge, thus intended & witnesses are expected to be sober.
- ∞ As per the Office of the Registrar General, I am officiating at your marriage as a ‘Minister’ of a religious entity, in lieu of a civil ceremony with the Justice of the Peace. Regardless of the words chosen and how we articulate that connection to ‘spirit’ you recognize that if questioned by the Province, this is a ‘religious’ wedding based on one or more of the following; setting, intention, attendees, music, words, ....
- ∞ The Celebrant maintains full copyright of the written ceremony.
- ∞ The Celebrant is granted permission to utilize any photographs, videos or recordings, for publicity and/or educational purposes.
